

Lesson 39

166 Chapter 4 Verbs

7. Our parents care for us.
8. The fifth graders have learned a new song.
9. The people have recited Psalm 19.
10. The students repeated their verses every day.

Review and Practice

A. Diagram the skeletons of these sentences.

1. The men were hunting for sponges.
2. Real sponges are animals.
3. Large crews went out and hunted for sponges.
4. There was danger in that business.
5. The cook and his helper worked together on the sponge boat.
6. Would you like the smell of drying sponges?
7. Natural sponges were in great demand a few years ago.
8. Artificial sponges are used today.

B. Choose and write the correct words in parentheses.

1. I (like, likes) to make bouquets.
2. We (was, were) finding many kinds of wildflowers.
3. James and Mary (bring, brings) wild violets to Mother.
4. The yellow violets (ain't, aren't) blooming yet.
5. Here (is, are) some purple flowers.
6. He (don't, doesn't) know what kind they are.

7. care—present
8. have learned—past participle
9. have recited—past participle
10. repeated—past

Review and Practice

A. 1. men | were hunting

2. sponges | are

3. crews | went
| and
| hunted

4. danger | was

5. cook | worked
| and
| helper

6. you | Would like

7. sponges | were

8. sponges | are used

- B. 1. like 4. aren't
 2. were 5. are
 3. bring 6. doesn't